'STRIKING' TEACHERS REFUSE MONTH'S PAY

HANCOCK HAS MORE FARMS AND LIVESTOCK JAN. 1935 THAN APRIL 1930

Number of Farms in County Increased by 188, Area, However, Decreased by 6000 Acres—Reports Extend Over Five-Year Period

More of the farms in Hancock county, Mississippi, were owned by the operators on January 1, 1935 than on April 1, 1930, according to a preliminary report for the 1935 Federal Farm Census, by T. J. Hurst, extension editor, Mississippi State College.

The number of farms in the county has increased by 193 and the number of owner-operated farms increased by 188. At the beginning of this year 667 farms were worked by the owners, 11 by managers, and 78 by tenants. The fact that the increase in number of farms was almost wholly in owned farms and also that the average size of farms decreased from 81.2 to 51.9 acres would seem to indicate a tendency to increase the number of owned small farms. The total land in farms, however, decreased about 6,000 acres during the five-year period.

There were more hogs and cattle on farms in Hancock County on January 1, 1935, than on April 1, 1930, and fewer horses, mules, and sheep. The increase in cattle was 41 percent and in hogs, 8 percent, and the decrease in horses was 11 percent, mules 2 percent, and sheep 66 percent.

PASS CHRISTIAN VOTES TO ISSUE $52,000 BONDS FOR SCHOOL BUILDING

Town Across the Bay Gives Majority of 154 in Favor Of Proposed Improvement

Pass Christian, Dec. 5.—In a special election Saturday the citizens of Pass Christian voted favorably on a $52,000 municipal bond issue as this city's part in a $94,000 PWA Public School improvement program with $78 votes for and only 63 against. This gave an overwhelming majority for the bond issue as the city's total voting strength was given as only 846.

Under Mississippi statutes a majority of the qualified electors of the municipality are required to carry the bond issue. Yesterday's vote gave proponents of the bond issue a majority of 154.

Bids have already been called for in the school improvement program, which includes the erection of a new brick school building for the elementary and high school departments.

Under the program as approved by the voters, the City of Pass Christian will issue bonds in the sum of $52,000 and the Federal Government will make an outright grant of $42,000, giving a total for school improvement purposes of approximately $94,000.

DROWNING AT LAKE CATHERINE

Nine-Year Old Daughter of L. & N. Telephone Operator Meets Death While Crabbing

Slipping from a runaway where she was crabbing, with a companion a 9-year-old girl, Mary Louise Crysell of Biloxi, was drowned in the waters of Unknown Pass at Lake Catherine early Sunday afternoon.

The tragedy occurred near the Louisville and Nashville railroad station at about 1 p. m. Unknown Pass meets Lake Borgne a short distance away.

Mary's body was recovered about two hours later by John Cochran, Lake Catherine club operator, who used grappling hooks. He said the child had plunged into the water 30 feet deep.

Hearing the screams of the little victim's companion, Louise Theard, 8, several residents of the fishing resort rushed to the runaway. They reported, however, that the child did not reappear after her fall.

Mary is the daughter of the telephone operator at Lake Catherine, Mrs. Christina Crysell. They commuted from Biloxi daily. Louise Theard is a daughter of Peter Theard, Louisville and Nashville section foreman at Lake Catherine.

The little girl resided with her mother, grandmother, Mrs. Louise Cunningham and uncle, Wm. Cunningham on Reynoir street near the Railroad. She was a pupil of the Sacred Heart Academy.

Kiln Vocational High School Debating Team Champions of Group One

Kiln Vocational High School debating team became champions of Group 1 in the Gulf Coast Region by winning a 4 to 2 decision over Poyune's team at Pearl River Junior College, Poplarville, Monday, December 2.

The affirmative debaters, Jean Davidson, Junior, and Grace Garriaga, sophomore, of Kiln lost to Dorothy Downes and Louise Hudnall of Poyune with a 2 to 1 decision. The negative debaters, John Wolfe, sophomore, and Arlington Adams, senior, won over Thelma Carpenter and Olga Gutierrez of Poyune with a 3 to 0 decision.

In an effort to determine the regional winner, Kiln's team has debated three times. They won over St. Stanislaus and Home Vocational High School, first, tied with Poyune second, and won over Poyune third. The negative side has not lost a decision.

The subject debated was "Resolved That Cotton Acreage Should be Restricted by the Federal Government."

TO DRIVE FOR NEW MEMBERS

Local Circle King's Daughters To Launch Campaign

At regular monthly meeting Bay St. Louis Circle King's Daughters it was voted to begin an intensive drive for new members. It was pointed out that in this wise with an expanded membership more good could be accomplished in hospital work; to get greater results in helping humanity by striving for the maximum with present physical equipment.

Mrs. Kenneth W. Pepperdene was appointed chairman of the new membership committee, along with other members.

The committee: Mrs. K. W. Pepperdene, Mrs. A. P. Smith, Mrs. Theodore R. Robin, Mrs. C. M. Weeks, Mrs. Richard C. Fitzgerald, Mrs. A. T. Terry, Mrs. Leo W. Seal.

"We will proceed at once," said Mrs. Pepperdene, "to launch our membership drive intending to augment the number of members to double the present, if that be possible."

"Our hospital represents so much in the community that its value cannot be adequately measured or overestimated and, with the assistance of new members we are going to do so much more," concluded Mrs. Pepperdene.

Before the meeting adjourned, a number of bills were ordered paid. It was also decided to install a new and larger heater particularly needed since the hospital building had been enlarged.

Girl Scouts of Troop One Entertain For Boy Scouts at K. C. Hall

Girl Scouts of Troop One entertained Wednesday night at the K. C. Hall for all Boy Scouts and cubs in the city. An indoor track meet was held in which Troop 217 led with a score of 28 points with Troop 208 second. The cubs scouts were third and Girl Scouts last. Troop 217 was presented with a trophy.

Punch and cookies were served by the Eagle Patrol and candy by The Morning Star Patrol. There were eighty-five scouts and six scout leaders present, and it was indeed inspiring to hear them give the Pledge of Allegiance in unison and sing the beautiful words of Taps at the close of the party.

The Girl Scouts are deeply grateful to those in charge of the K. C. Hall for the loan of the building and to those who helped to make the party a success.

DENUDING THE FOREST FOR HOLIDAYS

Auto travelers over O. S. T. Highway thru Hancock county, particularly that section adjacent and thru Honey Island are asked to buy bunches of holly berry-laden in anticipation of Christmas.

The number of sales affected, if any, must be few and far between since the time of decorating for Christmas is far off, comparatively speaking.

Indiscriminate stripping the woods for holidays is costly and should not be encouraged. People who sell possibly are more careful, generally acquainted with the woods and live in the environs. The greatest deplorables of our natural forest, it is claimed, is the autoist and others who drive thru the country and cut and break every thing in sight, injuring present shrub, and ultimately denuding the woods of native beauty and value.

The same marauders are out during the spring of the year destroying dog wood trees, blossoms that wither almost immediately after cut and are of no beauty save on the tree.

There should be a severe penalty for this sort of vandalism. It can best be cured by individual effort.

REVIEW OF THE MONTH PROGRAM AT LIBRARY NEXT TUESDAY A. M.

Current Event Number by Mrs. Leo E. Kenney—Capt. Kenneth McIntosh to Lecture

The Review of the Month Club will meet on the morning of Tuesday, December the tenth, immediately following the business meeting of the Board of Administrators of the Hancock County Free Library. As a special feature marking the holiday season, Captain Kenneth C. McIntosh, Supply Corps, United States Navy will lecture to audience on Colapal James Churchward's, Lost Continent of Mu; the land of well-authenticated fable that many people claim once occupied the center of the Pacific Ocean. Captain McIntosh's wide interest in history and travel should make the lecture one well worthy of attendance by those clients of the Review of the Month Club attracted by the ever changing and colorful panorama of world mutations.

The current-event number of the December program will be delivered by Mrs. Leo E. Kenney of Bay St. Louis.

The usual admission fee of ten cents will be charged.

Five stories for juveniles, volumes nine and ten of Our Wonder World, and a complete set of the University Encyclopedia, ten books in all, have been presented to the Hancock County Free Library by Mrs. Ralph Ruggan.

Mrs. Clem Penrose has given four books of fiction for grown-ups, four for children and a number of volumes of serious discourse of interest to the scientific-minded bibliophile.

Mrs. Carol Dale Snedeker, that popular author for young people and staunch friend of the library, is expected shortly to arrive in Bay St. Louis as the guest of her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Crawford of a hundred and eleven Citizen street.

The encroaching winter reminds us of a story told by one of the most engaging members of Charleston, S. C.'s author's colony whom we were so fortunate as to meet while spending a year there not very long ago. "I am never warm enough at night," he said, "when I go visiting. Usually I get the rugs off the floor, and anything else I can find in the room, and put them on top of what cover is on the bed before I can go to sleep. But I remember one house where my hostess was so niggardly with her blankets that even that wasn't enough. I had to get up and take a little light bookcase and set it on top of the whole business; then I slept very well."

LOCAL GOLD JAYS TO PLAY NEW ROADS FIVE IN OPENING GAME

Coach Jane Juden's Players To Make Initial Appearance Saturday Night Locally

Basketball team of St. Joseph Academy, popularly known as the Gold Jays, will open the season Saturday night of this week with their first game at the local gym. They will play the Dashaways of New Roads, La.

At 7:30 a preliminary game will be played with Pass Christian. Thus a double game for the price of admission of one. Adults 25 cents, half tickets, 15 cents.

This particular opening game is especially looked forward to. Miss Jane Juden, star of the team last year, is official coach for St. Joseph Academy and the Gold Jays this year. And even though the better players of last year's team are lost to the school because of graduation, the new material gives much promise and players and fans are eager and hopeful of victory. And a large attendance, it is expected, will witness the opening game.

COUNTY SCHOOLS CLOSED

Striking Teachers and Bus Drivers to Meet With Local Authorities Thursday

SCHOOLS TO REMAIN CLOSED

A delegation of principals of county schools appeared before the Board of Supervisors Thursday before noon, with E. H. Stuart, principal of Catahoula School as spokesman, and A. V. Arendale, of Logtown, as second.

The outcome of the conference resulted in the announcement by Chairman Stuart of the Principal's Committee, that the schools would remain closed. They were willing to reopen if two months' salary were paid. The Board, however, said they were in a position just now to pay only one month. And could do no better for the present.

The proffer was refused. The situation was considered closed, said the committee.

No new developments were reported this week in the strike of teachers and school bus drivers in the rural public schools of Hancock county and most of the schools remained closed pending some sort of settlement of the salary payments which the teachers are demanding before returning to their work.

County Superintendent of Education A. S. McQueen, who has been out of town all week attending to professional matters in Hattiesburg, was expected to be back Thursday morning, in time to meet with a committee of the striking teachers, bus drivers and patrons of the schools affected.

This meeting is expected to result in the designation of a committee to appear Thursday before the Hancock county board of supervisors in an effort to work out some sort of plan whereby the schools can reopen and the teachers and bus drivers be assured of immediate payment of salary arrearages.

Some 91 of the 21 rural schools of the county are closed due to the refusal of the teachers to work any longer without pay. Salaries are three and a half months in arrears, it is claimed by spokesmen for the striking teachers and in some instances the teachers have not been paid the last month and a half of last year's work.

The municipal schools of Bay St. Louis and Waveland, where there are no salary arrearages were not affected by the walkout of the teachers and are operating as usual. Two rural schools, Edwardsville and Clermont Harbor were also still reported as in operation, due to their sessions not having as yet reached the state required four months term this year.

Teachers of the county affected by the decision to work no longer without pay are hopeful that the present state legislature now in extraordinary session will make an appropriation to pay the past due salaries. They are planning also, it was understood to urge the Hancock county board of supervisors scheduled meeting to take some steps toward the payment of the teachers and bus drivers.

Announcement to 4-H Boys and Girls of Hancock County

Due to the fact that the Rural Schools of the County have closed for a rather indefinite length of time, Mr. Bozeman, County Agent, and Miss Jeanette Hunter, Assistant Home Demonstration Agent, wish to make the following announcement to the 4-H Club boys and girls: Since the schools in which boys and girls club work is being done are closed we cannot say anything very definite about the next regular meetings which are scheduled to be held next week. We might say, however, that if the schools reopen by the first of next week we will of course hold our club meetings as were previously scheduled. At any rate when the schools do reopen we will continue our 4-H Club work.

FINEST BRIDGETO SPAN MISSISSIPPI RIVER AT N. O. TO OPEN DECEMBER 16

Ceremonial Pageant for $13,000,000 Structure Will Review 218 Years of Transportation History in Louisiana.

COUNTY SCHOOLS

FEATURING it as major news and with important position, outside newspapers have given Hancock county considerable publicity because school teachers of rural community have not received pay. In turn teachers refused to return to their post of duty Monday morning and as a result schools are closed, save Edwardsville, Clermont Harbor, due to their sessions not having as yet reached the State-required four months term this year.

The matter has been so magnified it would appear to the unknowing that Hancock was the only county where teachers failed to receive pay. A similar situation exists in practically a majority of counties in Mississippi and similar resolutions as those adopted by teachers of Hancock have gone on record.

This, however, does not solve the situation; it fails to bring forth a remedy for the situation.

Failure to collect taxes up to the present time is responsible for the situation. As the Echo goes to press (Thursday) a special committee is to confer with members of the Board of Supervisors and it is expected some plan might be suggested and adopted.

However, at this time and from a neutral slant one cannot see an immediate remedy, unless it be only for the moment.

The situation, due to lack of tax collections and falling off of assessments, is due sooner or later. To close the schools for a period this year or next year results in no difference. "It has got to come," said an official in authority, "soon or later." It is a situation over which there is no local control. Our sympathies are with the teachers but they are in the same position of many other workers whose pay is in arrears because of a lack of available funds. Men and women, engaged in the pursuit of other trades and professions are either without occupation or pay is delayed. Teachers are not alone in their plight. We hope a solution will present itself that will be acceptable to all concerned. There is no one to censure, no reason for criticism, only a situation has arisen born of economic stress.

STRIKING TEACHERS

Editorial From Jackson Daily News by Major Fred Sullens, published herewith as an outside expression of a local situation:

Teachers in twenty rural schools in Hancock county are on a strike because their salaries have not been paid.

The teachers deserve their pay, of course. The county superintendent of education says he has no money with which to pay, and will not have funds available until annual tax collections come in.

Here's a point, however, that the teachers probably didn't consider before they decided to quit.

Will they be any better off, financially, as a result of the walk-out?

Not likely. They must have something to eat and places to sleep, whether teaching or not teaching.

Prospect of being paid some time is better than the prospect of no pay at all.

Also, did the teachers stop to think about the 2,400 children who are being deprived of the right of education through no fault of their own?

ST. JOSEPH'S PARENTS' CLUB TO MEET FRIDAY

Regular monthly meeting of St. Joseph Parents' Club will be held this Friday afternoon at 2:30 P. M. All members requested to be present.

Father Mississippi's finest bridge, a $13,000,000 combination rail-and-highway span, 3 1/2 miles above New Orleans, will be formally dedicated, Monday, December 16 at noon.

The new structure begun in 1932 by the Public Belt Railroad Commission of the city of New Orleans, is the fruit of more than forty years of planning and effort. It is the longest railroad bridge in the world, 4.4 miles over all; it towers above the city's highest office building, while the foundations for its immense piers rest on a stratum of hard sand-170 feet below Gulf level. The vertical clearance at extreme high water is 135 feet.

The bridge was designed by Ralph Modjeski of the engineering firm of Modjeski Masters and Case.

An elaborate program, entirely nonpolitical and distinguished by an almost complete absence of speech-making is being prepared by a committee composed of Edgar Murray as chairman and C. S. Williams and Jac Bloom, representing the Public Belt Railroad Commission, and Alfred D. Danziger, representing Governor Oscar K. Allen and the Louisiana Highway Commission. Dr. J. J. Wymer is pageant director, and Wilson S. Callender of the New Orleans Association of Commerce staff is in charge of all details.

A pageant depicting the progress of transportation from the founding of New Orleans in 1718 to 1936 will be enacted. In this pageant the first mail to go over the bridge will be carried first by an Indian runner, then in turn by a colonial rider, a stagecoach, a primitive locomotive and a more modern locomotive, then the finest and newest of railroad engines, a steamboat, a ship, an automobile and an airplane. The locomotives will include the famous old "C. P. Huntington" of the Southern Pacific Company, with several intermediate types down to the big Mallets now used by the Southern Pacific for pulling its fast passenger-and-mail trains.

The pageant will reach a climax with all of the units on the bridge at once. One hundred girls from the New Orleans Public high schools, in costume and singing appropriate songs, will form a colorful background for the periods represented in the pageant of transportation. A chorus of 1500 school children from the Jefferson Parish schools will sing patriotic songs. A professional announcer will describe the events. There will be no set speeches and no so-called master of ceremonies.

Foot passengers and private automobile parties will be sent over the bridge as soon as the formal program is completed. An official train will be operated to the bridge site to convey guests of honor to the celebration. Excursions will be run in the afternoon by the Southern Pacific to permit the greatest number possible to be among those to cross the bridge on the opening day.

The communities of South Louisiana, representing the people of the West who are now united to New Orleans by construction of the bridge, will organize a motorcade under the auspices of the Old Spanish Trail Association of Louisiana and will attend the ceremonies and be the first to cross the bridge from the West.

Special invitations over the signatures of Governor Oscar K. Allen and Mayor T. Semmes Walmsey have been sent to President Franklin D. Roosevelt, Vice President John N. Garner, members of the Cabinet and of Congress, federal officials, state and local government officials, editors of leading newspapers and periodicals, railroad and steamship officials, leaders in the engineering and construction fields and others.

FOR A NATIONAL UNIVERSITY

TO celebrate the three hundredth anniversary of Harvard University next fall, Dr. James Bryant Conant, president of the institution, has written to 65,000 alumni, outlining a plan to establish a fund for the awarding of large annual prize scholarships to boys in each state of the union.

Dr. Conant hopes that the scholarships may be considered as prizes to be competed for by boys of the highest, all-around ability from every economic and social level. He hopes they will carry awards ranging from $200 to $1200 a year, depending upon the financial resources of the individual winners.

It is interesting to note that this educator recognizes that some of the older endowed universities "have a special duty to perform in offering their facilities to students from every state in the union." In this way he says, they will not only do their part in developing the talent of our Democratic society but will help to keep the country's culture from becoming sectional.

Undoubtedly there is a field of service open to any university in the United States that can establish its claim to being a national university. Dr. Conant's idea is a step that should meet with encouragement and be followed by other heavily endowed institutions that do not depend upon tax money for support. In fact, there is room in the United States for a real national university, to be composed of students representing the individual states and thus bring together men and women from all sections to meet, mingle and develop in common.

PRUDENCE PREVENTS ACCIDENTS

IT will surprise most readers of the The Sea Coast Echo to hear that 101,000 persons were killed in accidents and that 9,720,000 were injured, with 5,100,000 persons being hurt in their homes.

We hear a great deal about the 36,000 deaths from motor vehicle accidents but no so much about the 34,500 citizens who were accidentally killed in their homes. In addition there were 17,500 deaths classified as "public" and 16,000 as "occupational."

The conference suggested by President Roosevelt to formulate plans to control this situation should attract considerable public attention and may furnish valuable safety information. In the final analysis, however, helpful results will be secured only if individuals heed the alarming toll and adopt for themselves a policy of careful caution every day.

We once knew a man who was extremely particular in regard to many things around his home. He kept a close eye on fires, dangerous tools that might entice children and was, in the opinion of observers, ultra careful. However, when one reads news stories that continually tell of people burned to death at night, of children burning themselves or taking poison by mistake and other incidents that spell death and carelessness the solitude of this individual father does not seem to be farfetched.

CHAMBERS OF COMMERCE NECESSARY

IT IS a poor community of any import that is without its chamber of commerce or body that functions with equal results—to help further build a community, to foster its best interests and serve in any public capacity that may prove most to the largest number of people.

A chamber of commerce is a clearance house for a community's activities and serves in dual capacity—to the public at home and to the public away. A letter written to a community seeking information is invariably addressed to the chamber of commerce. No other organization receives more mail and is called upon more frequently. It serves without stint of time or effort; it gives freely to the public in quest of information. It is ever ready to sponsor any movement for the public good; it serves both city and county.

Its work is made possible by its live secretary. Its continuance is made possible by membership who pay their annual subscription dues. The Chamber of Commerce is yours. Call on it when in need. It is ever ready to function for the public good.

A MARVELOUS AGE

AIR journeys are common-place. Modes of travel are quicker and faster than ever. The world is being drawn closer together.

A giant airplane flies across the Pacific in about eighty flying hours, taking about five days in all. Pretty soon the flying will be continuous without long stop-overs, only enough to transfer passengers and baggage.

The Graf Zeppelin, German airship, which has crossed the Atlantic time and again, gone around the world, and so forth, arrived from Germany at Brazil on Monday and found a revolution going on about its landing field. It calmly stayed in the air, radioing its owners not to worry, it had fuel supplies to stay up until Thursday.

Air travel is just beginning. It will multiply and increase. Planes will be cheaper, landing places more available, and more people will operate them. Improved appliances will make such travel even safer than it now is. Automobile travel may be comparable at no far distant day to the old horse-and-buggy speed and comfort.

REMOVING EYESORES

RECENT sale of a small frame building located on the local county courthouse grounds has furnished reason for its removal. Old residents say this building has stood on the south-west corner of courthouse square well nigh or possibly over seventy-five years. It is time it were demolished and thus the removal of an eyesore is accomplished.

The antiquated county jailhouse, too, is to be removed when the jail quarter will have been constructed atop of the courthouse, in accordance with plans to be carried out with federal funds already allotted.

Our courthouse building is a thing of beauty and it is well the outhouses are to be removed and the entire square, we are told, will be a place of lawn and ornamental shrubbery, as the front and sides present.

To the credit of our county clerk, and board of supervisors as well, the courthouse grounds of late years have been considerably embellished and we are looking forward to the time when the entire plan now on foot will have been carried out.

AUTO TRAFFIC AND THE BEACH

BECAUSE of a condition that makes it necessary, traffic over the Beach Boulevard, and even those who were opposed to it and so signified their displeasure, will admit it does look "good" to see the bus with its animated cargo of passengers passing thru the city again.

Designing the course of the Old Spanish Trail in that manner that it gives Bay St. Louis the "grand go by," it has been conservatively estimated merchants and other business firms along the Beach Boulevard, the source of revenue to city and county that pay more taxes, is deprived of, at least, $100,000.00 per annum.

The figures were arrived after a careful and intelligent survey. We are of the opinion the estimate is conservative. Thousands of autos and occupants travel on and through Bay St. Louis every day. They are routed back of town, through forest and back lots. Travelers are given the worst impression of this section. Besides, they do not stop. Fail to see the beauties of our shore line and to meet our people.

Mrs. Ruth Bryan Owen, Minister to Denmark, on her visit to Jackson, revealed the fact that the Kosciuszko Boys had been invited to make a tour of Poland next summer as a part of the celebration in honor of the great Polish-American patriot who served with such distinction during the American Revolution. The band is to stop for two days in Copenhagen and Mrs. Owen said she would entertain them in the American Legion there.

BUILDING ACTIVITY OVER CITY

THERE seems considerable building in progress over our city and vicinity. This must be taken as a step forward, regardless of depression or progress.

Bay St. Louis has always held its own. The charm of this section and desirability of being a good place to dwell has never waned. The high character of our schools and other institutions that we hold dear and go to make the ideal community have never wavered from the high standard of measure.

We have possibly slowed down but never fallen. The onward march of progress, sustained values of realty are among the elements that stand the test and make for a permanence of the future.

One need only go over the city casually and evidence on every side point to a revival of building and other improvement. Pin your faith to Bay St. Louis. It is the ideal place of residence. The land of the heart's desire.

Well, boys and girls, it is about time for some newspaper editor to reprint the famous reply to Virginia's question about Santa Claus.

GULF COAST WEEK-END TRAVEL

WITH the close of the football season, in the official sense, it is expected the weekly exodus from New Orleans to the Gulf Coast will be resumed.

It has been noted the past several week-ends the heavy traffic coastward has fallen off over fifty per cent and this is largely attributed to the fact thousands have remained at home to attend the major football games in New Orleans, or have traveled elsewhere to the scene where their favorite teams have battled.

The week-end business to the Mississippi Gulf Coast is considerable. Hard-surfaced highways invite travel and a trip to this section is always an irresistible lure. This business should now show a rapid pick-up. With the shortcut, expected to be opened to the public at almost any time, will prove an incentive for more travel, to and fro.

Dr. W. F. Bond has been selected as director for Mississippi for the Emergency Relief Administration in Mississippi, and Mrs. Mary Baker, Secretary. Mrs. Baker will be in charge until January when Mr. Bond will assume active charge. The office is located in the Mississippi Fire Insurance building across from the Public Library.

EARLY CHRISTMAS ADVERTISING

READERS of the metropolitan newspapers cannot fail to notice the early Christmas advertising of the large stores in these cities.

We are somewhat accustomed to efforts to speed up retail buying by merchants in various places but it was something of a surprise to observe the large display advertisements of Christmas goods that began appearing as early as a full week before Thanksgiving Day.

These progressive merchants realize that they can get more business by an early opening of the Christmas season. They decided to speed up Christmas buying, knowing full well that the earlier it starts the greater the volume that will follow.

TAXPAYERS' UTOPIA

THERE is a taxpayers' Utopia out in the Middle West. It is surrounded on the North by South Dakota, on the East by Iowa, on the South by Kansas, and on the West by Wyoming.

In other words it's that area described as Nebraska.

Here are the Utopian facts: Nebraska has a $10,000,000 capital without a penny of debt on it.

Nebraska has a fine system of highways without a single outstanding bond.

Nebraska's State tax which provides the funds for the support of the government, state university, for normal schools, has averaged less than 2 mills per year for the past ten years.

Nebraska has no State income tax.

No nuisance taxes. You, say, maybe the counties are bonded to death.

Not so. The bonded debt of the 93 counties a year ago was only $6,247,000 of which a single county, Douglas, accounted for $4,500,000 leaving the small sum of $1,700,000 apportioned

OUR $7.50 A DAY MEN

UP in Oregon, Legislators draw $3.00 per day. Mississippi solons draw $7.50 a day.

We're in favor of sending some of our $7.50 boys out to Oregon just to let 'em see what we grow over here.

But we doubt that we could show any good reason why we pay 'em $7.50 a day.

among the 82 remaining counties. This Utopia hasn't been achieved by magic.

Here's Nebraska's four-sided plan:

1. Pay-as-you-go: issue no State bonds and few county bonds.

2. Reject new forms of taxation.

3. Watch public spending, and the spenders.

4. Remember that even in these changing times the functions of local government are same as they were 15 years ago and should cost no more.

The plan is simple. It is workable. It is sound.

Nebraska has led the way to economic sanity.

How to Keep Colds UNDER better CONTROL

Caught a Cold? Vicks Vapo-Rub helps End a Cold Sooner

At the first warning nasal irritation, sniffle or sneeze, use Vicks Vapo-Rub—just a few drops up each nostril. Vapo-Rub is especially designed for the nose and upper throat—where most colds start. It stimulates Nature's own functions—in the nose—to help prevent colds, and to throw off head colds in their early stages. Used in time, Vapo-Rub helps avoid many colds.

Follow Vicks Plan for Better Control of Colds

A helpful guide to fewer colds and shorter colds. Developed by Vicks Chemists and Medical Staff; tested in extensive clinics by practicing physicians—further proved in everyday home use by millions. The Plan is fully explained in each Vicks package.

36/36 Over 7 Million Vicks Aids Used Yearly for Better Control of Colds

If a cold has developed, rub Vicks Vapo-Rub on throat and chest at bedtime. Vapo-Rub acts direct—two ways at once: (1) By stimulation through the skin like a poultice or plaster; (2) By inhalation of its medicated vapors direct to inflamed air-passages. Through the night, this combined vapor-poultice action loosens phlegm, soothes irritation, helps break congestion.

How Calotabs Help Nature To Throw Off a Bad Cold

Millions have found in Calotabs a most valuable aid in the treatment of colds. They take one or two tablets the first night and repeat the third or fifth night if needed.

How do Calotabs help Nature throw off a cold? First, Calotabs is one of the most thorough and dependable of all intestinal eliminators, thus cleansing the intestinal tract of the germ-laden mucus and toxins.

Second, Calotabs are diuretic to the kidneys, promoting the elimination of cold poisons from the system. Thus Calotabs serve the double purpose of a purgative and diuretic, both of which are needed in the treatment of colds.

Calotabs are quite economical; only twenty-five cents for the family package, ten cents for the trial package. (Adv.)

THE SONG OF THE TREES

I love the singing of a tree, So soft, so sweet and low; Its notes are veiled in mystery, With waltzing winds that blow.

The tree always beckons to me, Waving its arms of green; Sa fair its silken robes to see, Of softest, silken sheen.

The heart of youth beats in its breast And children's laughter too; The aged in its shade find rest, Its songs all men to woo.

The birds build homes within its nest Returning ev'ry Spring; God whispers o'er it secrets blest, With melodies that ring.

The tree bends o'er the loving dead, Sweet guardian of their sleep; It scatters dreams for newly wed, Sending a message deep.

—RIFORD J. LINCOLN

The fight between John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, and the American Federation of Labor, is apt to be bitter and effect labor interests everywhere. For some time there has been a cleavage in the ranks of labor, with Lewis fighting aggressively to force the Federation to change its attitude on industrial unions as opposed to craft unions. During the recent convention, the fight was so bitter that Lewis twice knocked down the leader of the fight against his proposal.

Defiant arms of steel firm set, God's very face to dare, Huge block set on a parapet, On which, wondering we stare.

A bold and cold monster by day, A pillared torch by night; Your limbs, in wind's mad blast do sway, Shaking, trembling in fright.

Oh, well, to boast of statue great, Of strength, and breadth and might, But will you o'er withstand grim fate?

A STATEMENT ON ELECTRIC SERVICE IN THE HOME

The economic principles under which an individual home—or all of the homes in an individual town—increases its use of electricity certainly are simple even if not thoroughly understood by as many of our customers as we hope will understand them in the months and the years immediately to come.

It is NOT poor economy to buy more lamps and larger bulbs and to use more electric lighting—NOT if the expense is measured against the saving of eyesight of both children and adults.

It is NOT poor economy to buy an electric refrigerator and to use more electricity for its operation—NOT if the expense is measured against the actual dollars-and-cents savings in perishable foods, to say nothing of the savings in health!

It is NOT poor economy to buy an electric range and to use more electricity for its operation—NOT if the expense is measured against fuel-type cooking costs, the savings in valuable food elements, the savings in work and worry on the part of the housewife, the savings in curtains, pots and pans and in redecoration of kitchen walls!

It is NOT poor economy to buy an electric water heater and to use more electricity for its operation—NOT if the expense is measured in the comfort and convenience and economy of 24-hours-a-day hot water service!

It is NOT poor economy to buy an electric water pump and to use a greater amount of electricity for its operation—NOT if the expense is measured against hand-pumping and pail-carrying, to say little of the savings in health and property through ability to have ample sanitary facilities and adequate fire protection!

In short—NO HOME WHICH INCREASES ITS USE OF ELECTRIC SERVICE INCREASES ITS BUDGET!

FOR EVERY PENNY SPENT FOR APPLIANCES OR SERVICE THERE IS A COMPENSATING SAVING, EITHER IN ACTUAL MONEY OR IN BETTER HEALTH AND GENERAL FAMILY WELFARE, OR ALL THREE.

No individual home can LOSE when it makes greater use of electric service! It WINS every hour of every day!

We have avoided the use of superlatives in advertising the merchandise we have for sale. It is a FACT however that during December we have arranged to offer through the newspapers and on our sales floor, values and terms unequalled in our history.

We want to sell you these appliances—yes. But it is in no spirit of just "Make it an Electrical Christmas." Rather, it is our part in making it possible for every home to GO THE LIMIT this month in really letting electricity bring a gift of YEAR 'ROUND HAPPINESS.

CLAUDETTE COLBERT RETURNS TO SCENE OF FORMER TRIUMPH

Makes "She Married Her Boss" For Columbia

Everyone has been waiting to see the inimitable Claudette Colbert do another picture of the same type as "It Happened One Night," which not only won for her the official tag of "the best actress of 1934" but also brought big honors to the director, the scenarist, the co-star, and the producer.

Since making that immortal film, Miss Colbert has not been with Columbia, the company that produced it. But recently she returned to that studio to star in another light comedy, "She Married Her Boss," which finds its way to the A. & G. Theater this Sunday and Monday.

True, Miss Colbert has appeared in dramatic successes in the interim, "Imitation of Life" and "Private Worlds," but she enjoys comedy a great deal and so enables her audiences to enjoy it with her. Gregory LaCava, who directed Miss Colbert in "Private Worlds," her last big success, worked with her again on "She Married Her Boss."

The theme of her new picture easily lends itself to buoyancy and charm. Miss Colbert is seen as a painfully efficient private secretary to a young man with bad digestion and a memory of a recent marital experience that turned sour. Melvyn Douglas is the bitter boss. But while Miss Colbert sympathizes with his dyspepsia she is rather impatient with his views on marriage, for she finds herself in love with him.

The home of the boss, who is the active owner of a large metropolitan department store, is in a sad state of affairs. A neurotic sister and a spoiled, precocious nine-year-old daughter do everything in their power to make his life miserable. The household itself is thoroughly demoralized.

Then again, he suspects that his secretary, whom he just can't do without, has been receiving generous overtures from other firms. So he decides it would be a good idea to marry her.

But the secretary has no intention of being majordomo both at home and at the office, and gives up business for domesticity, much to the boss's chagrin. In time, of course, the secretary divines his real reason for marrying her, and then the fun begins to fly.

Michael Bartlett, the young man who enjoyed a personal triumph in Grace Moore's last picture, "Love Me Forever," is seen as a playboy-business man who tries to make Miss Colbert forget her woes.

—Drowning of the 9-year-old Crystall child at Lake Catherine, last Saturday, while crabbing, is pathetic in the extreme and the bereaved mother is prostrated at the shock of the tragedy. Fishing with another girl companion, the victim fell over into deep water and was seen no more until the body was recovered later.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Osinach, of Gulfport, spent the past week-end visiting relatives in Bay St. Louis, and were guests of Mr. Osinach's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Osinach, and family. Mr. Osinach is managing news editor of the Daily Herald and, in addition to visiting relatives and friends, came to enjoy the fishing in nearby waters.

—The many friends of Mrs. D. Daugimont, resident of Waveland and who is spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Forcelle, at New Orleans, will regret to learn she has been on the sick list, ailing seriously. We are glad to learn, however, our estimable friend, is doing better and we look forward to her early and rapid recovery.

—Mrs. C. M. Weeks and mother Mrs. Pinsonault, returned last week-end from Hot Springs, Ark., where they spent three weeks, delightfully and beneficially. Motoring to and fro. They had the advantage of having with them the family car and enjoyed many side trips. Clarence and Clarisse Weeks, who were at the College and Convent, respectively, during their mother's absence, have returned home.

—Mrs. A. F. Fournier, State president and local president Circle of King's Daughters, came out from New Orleans Tuesday to attend regular monthly meeting King's Daughters of Bay St. Louis. Mrs. Fournier is active and enthusiastic in the interest of the work and its hospital here that serves humanity of the county. Mrs. Fournier was accompanied by Misses Elsie and Hilda Spurl.

—Contractors have started on the work of resurfacing the Old Spanish Trail as it extends from Bay St. Louis on westward, beginning at a local point. This contract was let November 19 and calls for a complete new blacktop and is being done in anticipation of the double traffic expected by opening of the new La-Miss shortcut. Cars going thru are detoured by way of Nicholson avenue to the beach, for the present.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Moreau were called to New Orleans Tuesday evening by the death of a nephew-in-law of the former, August J. Broadmann who passed away at his home Monday in Beaumont, Texas. He was the husband of Mrs. Honore Muller Broadmann, and is survived by a young lady daughter and son attending Tulane University. Native of New Orleans aged 46 years. He was prominently identified and widely known and his sudden passing is a source of much regret.

SEA COAST BREEZES

CHRISTMAS falls on a Wednesday this year—breaks into the middle of the week—so not so very convenient.

Mardi Gras unlike last year will be early, falling on the 25 day of February—that will bring Easter decidedly earlier than usual.

Easter lilies will cost more, scarcity and demand regulate prices. The poinsettia blossom has crimsoned the gardens of many homes this year. . . . delay of freezing weather has been kind to gorgeous blooms. . . . to keep the poinsettia as a cut flower, cut stems long, dip into boiling water for 10 minutes or more, then into cool water. . . . properly done they will keep two weeks.

Automobile show is on in New Orleans. . . . don't visit if you wish to refrain from purchasing a new car, even though yours is only a last year model. . . . never saw so many new ones about town this year. . . . and old ones, too. . . . a new car always spells economy.

Strange as it seems, and believe it or not, there is not a "regular-established" automobile agency in Bay St. Louis or in Hancock county, for that matter. . . . both Chevrolet and Ford agencies, like the proverbial Arab, have folded their tents. . . . here's opportunity knocking.

Opening of the Shortcut and building of new Bay St. Louis postoffice are both subjects of public interest. . . . Contractor James Geary is completing the new second story addition to the Merchants Bank vault. . . . awaited steel arrival last week-end.

There is a field for the investor who will build a number of small cottages and apartments. fully and modernly equipped. . . . but the absence of gas precludes full success of any attempt. . . . gas means for comfort. . . . however, the day will come.

Bay St. Louis will appreciably benefit of widening narrow streets, adding value to realty. . . . board of mayor and city commissioners favor the move. . . . should not allow to remain dormant.

Representative L. M. Gex will leave for Jackson to assume his post at that city. . . . at last Hancock County will have a representative. . . . pay is $1000 for three months term, payable in three payments. . . . first allotment practically on first day. . . . a real representative is worth five times that much. . . . a poor one.

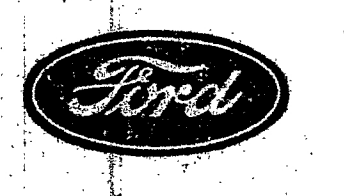

There seems to be a political campaign every year. . . . 1936 will witness Bay St. Louis municipal election. . . . the bus line traveling beach boulevard might be one of the many reported campaign issues. . . . and a congressional and senatorial campaign this summer. . . . Gov. Conner's special-session Legislature was a "flop". . . . not much of an asset for his proposed senatorial campaign. City authorities are invoking provisions of "move on" ordinance in breaking up crowds of colored boys and men that are wont to congregate at street corners after dark. . . . Chief Hobbs is doing excellent work in this line.

Force at Sheriff Keller's office is receipting for auto tax and license tags this month. . . . you will pay exactly double in January.

The High School Student Prints, local monthly publication, will celebrate National school journalism week with a special illustrated edition. . . . printed at home at the Sea Coast Echo plant by home printers. . . . wise merchants and others will see their circulars and posters bear the home imprint of The Sea Coast Echo. . . . it identifies the spirit of patronizing home industry and supporting home enterprise. . . . Student Prints will be a double number.

Nothing has comparatively grown as the city library. . . . speaks well for all concerned. . . . there has been a paucity of literature, hence ditto number of readers. . . . it is free. . . . no "ifs" and "ands." More anon.

—Milton Sylvester, who resides at Jackson, came down on the Coast Monday and visited friends and relatives of his former home town. He is here in the interest of a rat-exterminating program over the city.

AIDS DOMESTIC STEEL

Following the use of some German material on two FWA projects Secretary Ickes has increased the differential allowed for domestic steel over foreign produced steel to 25 per cent instead of 15 per cent.

HOOVER LEADS ATTACK

The attacks upon the administration by former President Herbert Hoover have convinced many observers that the ex-president will have to be reckoned with in the Republican Convention. Undoubtedly, Mr. Hoover is doing much to frame the issues from the Republican point of view.
